A – News in focus

(Taking effect from 06 Oct 2021)

On 06 Oct 2021, the Prime Minister enacted Decision 29/2021/QD-TTg stipulating on special investment incentives (hereinafter referred to as "Decision 29/2021/QD-TTg"), which takes effect from the same date.

In this legal update, we reveal the most highlights of the Decision No. 29/2021/QD-TTg.

Principles for application and adjustment of special investment incentives

- 1. Be applied to new investment projects and special investment projects.
- 2. Be regulated in:
  - ✓ Investment Registration Certificate (IRC);
  - ✓ Decision on approval of investment policy or written agreement with the State agency.
- During the period of receiving special incentives, any economic organization meeting the conditions for actual incentives will continue to receive incentives at that level for the remaining incentive period..

(The remaining incentive period is the incentive period according to the actual incentive conditions minus the corresponding number of years of CIT exemption or reduction, the number of years applying the CIT incentive rate, and the number of years of land and water rent exemption or reduction that have been applied before.)

- 4. In case of failing to implement the commitments àn conditions for applying special investment incentives:
  - In case of not having received the special investment incentives

=> not be able to receive anymore.

- In case of having declared to receive special investment incentives but actually do not meet the conditions:
  - not be able to receive that incentive;
  - must declare and pay the amount for the received incentives of the years not meeting the conditions (if any); and the amount of late payment and fines for violations as prescribed.
